LUG comes to London

22 October 2013 15.15 BST

(Poland) - New lighting fixtures subsidiary continues European company's expansion.

LUG has had a presence in London for two years, but sales strong figures and interest in the company convinced LUG's management that the creation of a new subsidiary and showroom would be useful.

Dagmara Hojna has been appointed head of sales at LUG Lighting UK and is responsible for the education, medical and heritage sectors of the business.

LUG, a Polish based manufacturer of professional lighting solutions, plans further advances into the UK market soon.
